Stonewall To Hold Special Service Thanksgiving Day

The annual Stonewall Community Thanksgiving Service will be held at the Trinity Methodist Church this year, November 28 at 10 a.m. The Rev. John P. Leitner, pastor of Hebron Baptist Church will bring the message. The Rev. William Ayers, pastor of Trinity and Bethel Methodist Churches, and the Rev Millard Stimpson, pastor of Stonewall Presbyterian Church, will assist in the service. Special music will be provided by the choirs of Trinity and Hebron, and a solo will be sung by Mrs. Martha Stimpson. All members of the community are cordially invited to attend.

Coach Is Named "Top Forecaster"

Gordon Bragg, AHS football coach, didn't win a Group II, District IV football championship this year, but one sports writer says he's a "top conference forecaster."

Newton Spencer, writing in a Lynchburg paper said that way back in August the district coaches were asked to speculate on the top teams in the league.

"Brookville and Altavista will be tough along with Amherst," replied Bragg.

And that is about the way the race came out. District teams ended up in these positions: 1. Brookville 2. Altavista 3. Amherst 4. Brosville 5. Appomattox 6. William Campell 7. Nelson County 8. Rustburg 9. Gretna 10. Dan River.

At least four of the district coaches named Appomatt o x "first" in preseason forecasting, Spencer said.

Saw Courthouse Burn In 1892

Mrs. Mildred Williams Harris, who saw the Old Appomattox Court House burn in 1892 returned to the Historical Park Thursday Nov. 14, to see the progress on the restoration now underway by J. E. Jamerson and Co.

'It looks natural' Mrs. Harris said, as she surveyed old landmarks in the village. For several years she and her family lived in the Mariah Wright home, taking care of Mrs. Wright her great grandmother. Mrs. Harris, then Mildred Williams, said she often walked over to the jail to help her uncle, Charlie Williams, care for prisoners. The Williams lived in the two lower rooms, and Mrs. Harris, (then a young girl) carried food to prisoners on the second and third floors.

Mrs. Harris' sister, Mrs. Lizzie Godsey, who is a guest at the Evans Rest Home, was also among those who saw the Old Courthouse burn.

Mrs. Harris identified many places in the old village during her visit last week. She remembered that a Mr. and Mrs. Spiggle kept the post office, and Mrs. Harris herself, was a post master at Vera for a few years. The Davidsons lived in a dwelling, now 'the old store.'

Born in 1880, Mrs. Harris was the daughter of John and Nannie Williams. Her husband, George W. Harris was a contractor. She lives now with a daughter, Mrs. Nannie Wooldridge at 511 Church St., Lynchburg. A son, Courtney, formerly a contractor and now owner of the Dixie Motel, Lynchburg, accompanied his mother on the visit to the park.

H. D. Schedule

Tuesday, Nov. 26 — Spout Spring Club will meet at 1:15 p. m. with Mrs. Paullin McFadden.

Chorus Elects New Officers

The Civic Chorus of Appomattox elected officers Sunday during their rehearsal for a December performance of the Christmas portion of Handel's MESSIAH. Director Thomas A. Waddill announced that the group would sing on December 15 and that further details on the place and time would be given soon.

Tryouts for solo parts in the forthcoming performance were held. Forty singers have signed up as members of the chorus.

Franklin Vaughan was elected president; Raymond 'R e d' Jamerson, vice president; Mrs. R. C. Hubbard, secretary-treasurer; Herbie Pulliam, librarian, Mrs. Keith Whitehead chairman of arrangements with Brenda Carter, Mrs. Robert Austin, W. D. Morris, and John Hall serving as a committee with Mrs. Whitehead.

Reverend Thomas A. Waddill said that several copies of the MESSIAH are still available for purchase, and that singers are cordially invited to join the group. Interested persons may whether they sing during Sunday rehearsals final performance Waddill said. Rehe 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. mattox Presbyterian nursery is provided
